

Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam."

By Willard Jones

THE DAUGHTER of this columnist and his wife, Annetta Jeanne Rollins, was responsible for the relief of a lot of anxiety and hoping when she presented us old folks with a brand new granddaughter Wednesday.

With two grandsons in the son June family, and another grandson in Jeanne's, we all had secret hopes that the new youngster would be a little girl.

Went down to see the new sissy last Thursday. There she lay in her bassinet at the hospital with a smile on her face as if she had just paid her income tax—not a worry in the world.

We commented to a hospital nurse, "The new baby has its father's eyes and its mother's nose."

And then Grandma Jones commented, "Yes, and if Grandpa doesn't stop leaning over the crib it's going to have his teeth!"

Cut it out, now!

DAN CASSELL of Abilene, with the public relations department of West Texas Utilities Company, was an interesting narrator the other day at a Rotary Club luncheon meeting in Hamlin.

Dan prefaced his remarks with the assertion that he was no relation to Arlie Cassle of Hamlin. "Arlie is of the educated and rich line of Cassels, while I'm of the ignorant and poor lineage."

In explaining that he endeavored to talk on the problems faced by business and professional men with their employees and their patrons, he asserted that he was not a psychiatrist but an industrial psychologist.

Cassle had charts cleverly painted to illustrate his points about the different types of people that made his talk interesting and practical to the luncheon attendees—interesting to the point that some came to believe before he closed that he was distantly related to the intelligent Cassels.

A NICE PERSON was pictured back about 1825 by Sydney Smith. Most of those principles still mark a nice person. He wrote:

A nice person is neither too tall nor too short, looks clean and cheerful, has no prominent feature, makes no difficulties, is never misplaced . . . is never foolishly affronted, and is void of affectations.

A nice person helps you well at dinner, understands you, is always gratefully received by young and old, Whig and Tory, grave and gay.

There is something in the very air of a nice person which inspires you with confidence, makes you talk, and talk without fear of malicious misrepresentation; you feel that you are resting upon a nature which God has made kind, and created for the benefit and happiness of society . . .

A nice person is clear of little, trumpery passions, acknowledges superiority, delights in talent, shelters humility, pardons adversity, forgives deficiency, respects all men's rights . . . always knows the day of the month, the names of everybody at the table, and never gives pain to any human being.

If anybody is wanted for a party a nice person is the first thought of; when the child is christened, when the daughter is married—all the joys of life are communicated to nice people . . .

A nice person never knocks over wine or melted butter, does not tread upon the dog's foot, or molest the family cat, eats soup without noise, laughs in the right place, and has a watchful and attentive eye.

"SEEMS LIKE just a little while ago that I started to work in a Hamlin bank," declared Lennie Greenway Monday as she and friends celebrated 40 years of service in various capacities in two banks at Hamlin.

"Those 40 years have been happy ones, for the most part," Miss Lennie as she is affectionately called by thousands of friends, said. "Of course, there have been ups and downs in the banking business, just like there have been in every other business. I have ridden through two depressions, and I am happy to say that the good people of the Hamlin territory are the finest in all the world today."

Don't forget that you are part of all those people who can be to help some of the time.

CHANGING TIMES—The wetback business is not what it used to be in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas. Years ago thousands of wetbacks crossed the Rio Grande at this point just south of San Benito. But today, instead of a wetback, Border Patrol Inspector James E. Seabourn finds pretty Gwen Johns of Harlingen swimming.

Elevator Additions Going Upward Fast

Additions to the elevator plant of Fred B. Moore & Son in East Hamlin that will add 550,000 bushels to the present 900,000-bushel capacity were making fast headway this week as a big crew of men and machinery were pouring concrete around the clock.

Chalmers & Borton of Hutchinson, Kansas, elevator contractors, who erected the previous portions of the grain elevator, holds the contract for the addition.

Twelve bins 22 feet in circumference and five interstice bins and one fan bin are being run simultaneously. They will be of reinforced concrete, and will reach 128 feet high, similar to the last section erected two years ago.

Underground foundations were laid two weeks ago. A huge network of wooden forms five feet high were constructed in shape of the bins on the foundation, then pouring of concrete began, about 20 feet being poured each 24 hours. The forms are raised by hydraulic jacks actuated by water under pressure, making a continuous cast as the forms are moved upward.

Two concrete mixing trucks are on the job, carting the emulsion to power lifts that take the "mud" to the top.

Fred B. Moore Jr., partner in the firm, said the project will be completed about September 1.

Forty Years of Banking Duty Seems Like Just a Little While to Miss Lennie

Lennie Greenway, vice president and cashier of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank at Hamlin, Monday celebrated 40 years of service to the community as a member of the banking staff.

And it wasn't as if the 40 years meant that she was older. She had the glint in her eye of a 17-year-old lass blooming into young womanhood. Her jolly, pleasant attitude was as fresh Monday as it was four decades ago, many of her friends would tell you.

During the day, Miss Lennie, as she is affectionately called by thousands of friends she has accumulated through the years, was greeted by scores of visitors to the bank Monday as word got around that this was a milestone in her banking career.

She recalled that on August 4, 1918, she began her banking career with the old First National Bank, which, incidentally, was located on the site of the present F. & M. Bank. B. L. Jones was cashier of that bank at the time, and he gave her early tutoring in the banking business that was stretched across two score years. In 1934 she went with the consolidated institution after F. & M. purchased the First National.

In looking back over the years, Miss Lennie recalled that she had been on the job pretty steadily. "I have been absent from work less than 10 days because of illness," proudly asserted the loyal bank employee.

Officials and employees of the bank made a celebration out of the occasion Monday afternoon after closing hours by staging a little party in the bank. President and Mrs. Tate May brought home-made cake and ice cream to the bank offices and served Miss Lennie and her associates, and wished her many more years of active life.

The bank presented the long time employee a certificate good for a new watch is a token of remembrance and appreciation.

Fair and Rodeo at Roby Expanded To Three Days

Catalogs and advertising materials are being printed this week in the Herald printing department for the thirteenth annual Fisher County Fair and Rodeo, to be staged at Roby Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 28, 29 and 30.

The show, which has grown to be one of the major affairs of its kind in Central West Texas, is being enlarged this year. The fair exhibits will be for all three days instead of a one-day event as heretofore. County Agents James Norman and Alice Kemp are leaders in the fair division of the annual exhibition. An even 100 items have been listed in the fair catalog for ribbon awards.

Exhibits of livestock in dairy cattle, beef cattle and swine also will highlight the fair displays.

A special quarter horse section will feature animals under sponsorship of the American Quarter Horse Association.

Top entertainment feature, of course, will be the three rodeo performances scheduled for 8:00 o'clock each evening. Rodeo officials said this week that they expected more than 200 contestants for the rodeo events that include bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, Brahma bull riding, calf roping, double mugging and girls' three-barrel cloverleaf race. More than $1,450 in cash prizes have been posted for winners in these events.

Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by Goat Mayo of Petrolia. Special clown acts have been added to the rodeo performances. Admission to the fair is free. Rodeo admission prices will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Grain of All Ages To Make Harvest Long Drawn-Out

Movement of a good sized maize crop in the Hamlin territory was gaining added impetus this week as farmers were harvesting the earlier crops of the head grains.

Because of wide variance in the planting of maize over the area, the harvest this year will be a long, drawn out affair, buyers declared this week. Some maize was harvested as early as July 10, but the bulk of the crop will not move for two or three weeks yet, it is believed.

Although rains during the past few weeks have been spotted, there are all sorts of crop conditions reported. Some maize will be of top quality, while the bulk of the crop will probably be only fair.

Most early feed will turn out pretty well. Much of the crop planted at normal time has been burning mightily bad, and heads in many cases are immature. Outcome of the late planted maize is still in doubt. Good rains within a few days could make it turn out well, farmers believe.

Market Poultry & Eggs, Texas Feed & Grain Company and F. B. Moore Grain Company are well prepared to handle all the grain coming to Hamlin.

One of the buyers Tuesday explained that a cash price of $1.65 per 100 pounds for No. 2 maize with 14 per cent moisture is being paid. Maize with 15 per cent moisture is quoted at $1.60.

Government loan rate was $1.54 per 100 Tuesday. Broken down, this is the Gulf Coast price of $2.35, less 44 cents for freight, 16 cents for handling, 20 cents for prepaid storage and one cent for loan clerk fee, leaving the Hamlin rate $1.54.

Above-100 Degree Temperatures Persist

Hamlin area people continued to mop their brows the past week as above-100 degree weather persisted. And there was no let-up of high temperatures in sight except for possible thundershower action that would tip the mercury temporarily.

Readings at 4:30 p. m. at the Santa Fe Railway depot for the past eight days follow: July 29, 106; July 30, 110; July 31, 112; August 1, 104; August 2, 104; August 3, 103; August 4, 106; August 5, 102.

Science Equipment Added at DePriest

New science equipment is being added to facilities of DePriest Colored School at Hamlin in the high school division, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook. Improvements in other departments also are being made to broaden the scope of work at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rollins of Abilene are announcing the arrival last Wednesday at St. Ann's Hospital in Abilene of a daughter. Weighing seven pounds 14 ounces, the young lady was named Regina Kaye. Mrs. Rollins is the daughter of Publisher and Mrs. Willard Jones of The Herald.

Two new citizens have been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. A boy and a girl, they are:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Prather of Sweetwater was born July 31. Weighing a heavy eight pounds five ounces, the youngster accepted Jackie Ray for a label.

A girl arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gonzales on July 31. The little miss, who tipped the scales at six pounds 13 ounces, declared Elva Anita would suit her for a name.

Grain Storage to Be Topic at Anson Meet

There will be a grain sorghum storage meeting in the Anson courthouse at 2:00 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon, it is announced by County Agent Kirby Clayton.

COTTON COULD EXPAND WITHOUT CONTROLS

The market for cotton will expand again, instead of continuing to shrink, when enough cotton farmers recognize that their prosperity depends on these factors: Freedom to manage their own business, efficient operation, volume of sales as much as price and realization that excessive price kills markets.

That's what Lamar Fleming Jr. told several hundred leaders in the cotton industry at the American Cotton Congress at Harlingen the other day. Fleming is board chairman of Anderson, Clayton & Company, world's largest cotton firm.

Speaking about present crippling government cotton controls, Fleming said, "There is no use continuing to rely on old approaches that heretofore have failed of their purpose and that are too costly to the rest of the American taxpayers and consumers—the more so since numerically farmers and cotton growers are diminishing proportions of the electorate—the cotton growers a very small proportion."

Fleming pointed out that the livestock people are doing well and that they survived the drought; that the soybean growers are doing well, as are growers of most crops in which there has been little or no government intervention. "The complaints come mostly from growers of the crops that have become most dependent on price support and most subject to government regulation of acreages," he said. "Our natural resources for lucrative cotton production are not hillsides or rolling contours, but are the flat lands that lend themselves to maximum mechanization — particularly flat lands that are irrigable."

What about the marginal cotton farmer? "I believe the real help to people in this category is to help them get out of it—not just to save their misery and keep them in it," he added.

He advocated getting rid of government regulation of acreages as soon as practicable, so that efficient cotton growing operations would be freed to achieve maximum efficiency. But, he said, support should be retained at some disaster insurance level.

Export "dumping" and subsidies so inequitable and harmful to our mills and contrary to our general international policies should be ended. And we should help the marginal cotton farmer find better use for his farm, a better farm or a better job, Fleming said.

Satan's Auction

Once upon a time Satan, growing old and weary, decided to retire from active work and move to cooler climes. So he offered all of his devilish inventory of tools for sale to the highest bidder. An auction date was arranged, and all prospective buyers were duly notified that bargains were to be had.

When the bidders arrived, they found all tools neatly arrayed—quite a task when you think of their ugliness and misshapen contours. There were Envy, Deceit, Sensuality, Malice, Enmity, Thoughtlessness and all the other devices which Satan wielded so expertly. Each was plainly marked, and the prices were surprisingly low.

Except, that is, for one ungainly piece of much-used apparatus marked Discouragement. Its price was higher by far than that of the other tools.

"Why, Mr. Satan," asked one of the bidders, do you want so much for this tool?"

"My friends," replied the Old Tempter, "this tool has always been my most useful one. You can see that it has had more wear than the rest. It is used as a wedge to get into a man's mind when all other means fail. Discouragement, once inside the consciousness of a man, will cause him to do anything I want. Practically every human being has had this tool used on him, although very few of them know that I'm the one who is wielding it. So, even though it doesn't look it, Discouragement is the finest device that Hades, I, have ever owned, and it certainly should bring in the largest price."

As it worked out, none of the shoppers could afford to pay the price for Discouragement that Satan demanded. Since he will not reduce the price one cent, he is still using it; and we can see the results every day.

RECALLING Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 30 years ago included the following, being news briefs taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 10, 1928:

Another surprise wedding was that recently at Stamford of Clinton Gillis, son of W. A. Gillis of near Hamlin, and Ollie Mae Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Hamlin.

Prices quoted by the M System Store include: Dry salt bacon, 19 cents pound; lard, eight-pound pail, $1.18; Uvalde honey, half gallon, 63 cents; Maxwell House coffee, three-pound can, $1.45.

Dan Moody was elected governor of Texas in voting Saturday. He received a majority over the other three candidates, Hawkins, Wardlaw and Wilmons.

Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Fowler have returned from a delightful vacation through Colorado. They were accompanied home by Leone Meadows of Lincoln, Nebraska, who will visit in the home for two weeks.

Fry's Cafe, one of the oldest eating establishments in Hamlin, was sold Monday by Loy Fry to Earl Edwards of Moran.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Items of interest in the news 20 years ago at Hamlin included the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 5, 1938:

W. L. Cash, long time railroad man on the Santa Fa, has retired from active duty. He has lived in Christoval since 1930, but now he has returned to Hamlin to make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis are on their vacation in New Mexico.

Florine Morgan has returned home from a six-week visit at Fort Worth. She was accompanied by Jean Comer of Haskell, who was her guest for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Fielder and little daughter Phyllis Ann, spent last week visiting at Lamesa and Lubbock while Coy was on his vacation from the Farmers & Merchants National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waggoner and son, Jerry, are vacationing at Corpus Christi this week.

Little Mary Nell Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cooper of the Cooper Ranch, is at home again after spending two months with her aunt, Mrs. George P. Droke, in San Antonio.

TEN YEARS AGO.

From the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 13, 1948, the following news briefs of 10 years ago are reprinted:

Hamlin Schools are scheduled to start September 6, according to Superintendent I. R. Hutchingson.

Assurance that money for the Neinda-to-Boyd's Chapel farm-to-market road will soon be available was given this week by J. S. Treadway, district highway engineer at Abilene.

Hamlin's teen-age softball team, the Mighty Mites, left Thursday morning for Houston, where they will participate in a state softball tournament.

Approaching marriage of Phyllis Jo Richardson to Larry McCoy was announced at a tea Friday afternoon in the Thomas Ferguson home.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Files of five years ago reveal the following news items of the community five years ago, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 14, 1953:

About 500 feet of old gas main lines in the alley just west of South Central Avenue in the business section were replaced this week by a crew under direction of Jake Lawson, local Lone Star Gas Company manager. The line was originally installed in 1929.

Scattered rains in the area first of the week that measured from one-quarter to one-half inch will be of some benefit to crops. An estimated 200 to 300 acres of cotton in the Fairview and Dovie communities was ruined by accompanying hail.

ONE YEAR AGO.

News events in the area of one year ago included the following, reprinted from the issue of The Herald dated August 8, 1957:

Up to four inches of rain fell in the Hamlin region Monday morning that gave crops a big boost. Best rains fell five to eight miles south of town, only .76 of an inch being recorded at the city pump station.

Workmen and big machines of A. & A. Construction Company of Olney made a fast start on widening in the Hamlin-to-Anson highway project this week.

Austin.—During much of the last century Texas was called the great land frontier. Word got around. From older regions came the restless, the ambitious, the hopeful who'd heard there was plenty of room in Texas.

Today, the sod huts and free land are gone from Texas. But the frontier is regarded by economists as greater than ever—rich and promising beyond Moses Austin's boldest dreams. A recent survey by a national magazine (U. S. News & World Report) described Texas as destined to become "the new powerhouse of the United States . . . an industrial empire . . . built on a storehouse of priceless natural resources."

Sounds wonderful. But Texas leaders, in both government and industry, have taken the position that favorable circumstances alone will not convert frontier to empire. Other states are angling, too, for energetic men with capital and know-how to start new factories, humming.

And most states are not hampered, as Texas is, by a constitutional provision prohibiting use of tax money to advertise the state's advantages.

Despite this hindrance, the last Legislature, at Governor Price Daniel's request, reactivated the Texas Industrial Commission to start the ball rolling. E. B. Germany of Dallas is commission chairman.

In operation only four months, with a piggy bank budget of voluntary donations, the commission is, nevertheless, making itself felt. Its showpiece is a 68-page, two-color brochure called "A Plan of Action to Win New Industry for Your Community." This do-it-yourself manual was mailed to every Chamber of Commerce, mayor, county judge, industrial foundation and legislator in Texas.

Letters of commendation and requests for extra copies have "poured in," according to Bob Bray, member of the governor's staff assigned to the commission. Said a letter from the Huntsville and Walker County Chamber of Commerce, "Never have we seen any publication so full of excellent guidance material for communities . . ."

With the letter came a contribution to carry on the commission's work.

Next big goal is passage in November of a constitutional amendment to remove the legal shackles on financing. "Failure of the amendment," said Bray, "will handcuff the commission. Our big job now is selling Texans on the need to sell Texas, both industry wise and tourist wise."

With funds and staff, the commission will be ready to go ahead on an extensive effort—already mapped out—for research, information, advertisements, films, aid to local organizations, etc.

Says Germany, "Disastrous droughts, the alarming loss of rural population and the stark realization that the state no longer can depend on its oil revenue, all emphasize the need for developing our industrial resources."

Schools "Bust Out."—Some seam splitting from Texas' expanding population was reflected in the reports of Texas Education Agency survey teams on conditions in the state's public schools.

As a result of the reports to the State Commission on Accreditation nine schools were removed from the accredited list, and accreditation was withheld from six others. Fifty-one were warned they face loss of accreditation unless they improve standards.

Most of the schools' troubles seemed to stem from pupil populations and needs that outran com-without the control of its founder and majority stockholder, Pierce Brooks.

This was the effect of a ruling by State Insurance Commissioner William A. Harrison after a three-day hearing on NABISCO's affairs. State officials conceded the solvency of the company, but objected to certain investments and management practices.

Result: Brooks' controlling interest has been signed over to a trustee. Brooks has said he will sell the stock as soon as the transaction can be arranged.

Still Need a Jury.—Before going into summer recess until October 1, Texas Supreme Court has knocked down a portion of the state's new mental health code.

It declared unconstitutional the part which denies a jury trial to a mental patient seeking to have a court declare he is sane again. High court also closed the door to any further consideration as to whether price advertising of eye glasses is legal. In a ruling last month the court held that a new state law does not bar optometrists from advertising prices as long as the ads are not fraudulent or misleading. It's definite now that optometrists can advertise and quote prices in their ads.

New Roads Ahead.—Better driving days are seen ahead as the State Highway Department unveiled its plans for 1959-60 interstate highway building. A $260,000,000 program has been authorized to add 567 miles of controlled-access highways to Texas' portion of the national network.

Of this, $210,495,300 is earmarked for construction, $16,272,100 for right-of-way buying and an additional $33,322,500 for advance right-of-way buying.

Eventually, Texas is to have 3,033 miles of the interstate system within its borders.

Fresh Start.—National Bankers Life Insurance Company of Dallas may continue in business, but

Information About Federal Gas Tax Now Available to Farmers

Approximately 45,000 North Texas farmers are expected to file claims for the refund of the federal excise tax on gasoline, according to A. E. Fogle Jr., administrative officer of the Abilene office.

Under the law enacted on April 2, 1956, farmers are entitled to claim refund each year for the three cents a gallon federal excise tax on gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes. Farmers can obtain publication No. 308 from their local Internal Revenue Service office or from their county agent. This 15-page pamphlet explains in detail how to file the claim for refund.

Forms 2240, the farmers' gas tax refund claim form, is also available at county agents' offices as well as Internal Revenue Service offices.

September 30 is the deadline for filing a claim for refund on the taxes covering the fiscal year from July 1, 1957, through June 30, 1958.

New Wildcat and Plugging of Three Features Oil Scene

Staking of a new wildcat and plugging of three other wildcats in the Hamlin territory highlighted the oil activity in the area of the past several days.

Jim B. Curry et al of Abilene staked the No. 2 Kenneth Scott as a new project in the new Carol Ann Tannehill Field, five miles north of Hamlin. Slated for 2,990 feet with rotary equipment, it spots 330 feet from the south and 990 feet from the west lines of the northwest quarter of Section 152, B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey. It is an east offset to the same operator's No. 1 Scott, discovery and lone producer in the field.

Two wildcats drilled in Southeast Stonewall County, six miles northeast of Hamlin, were plugged. Wes-Tex Drilling Company and Hill & Hill No. 1-123 Swenson Land & Cattle Company, in Section 123, B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey, was plugged at 3,230 feet. The other dry hole was Norwood Oil Company of Wichita Falls No. 1-B Swenson Land & Cattle Company, in Section 114, B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey, which was drilled to 3,199 feet.

Roy Guffey Production Company of Abilene No. 1 A. E. Black et al, wildcat five miles southwest of Neinda in J. S. Hill Survey 2, was plugged at 3,584 feet.

ENTIRE FAMILY KILLED IN CRASH—An East Texas family of five was wiped out near Gainesville when their car in which they were riding collided with a heavy truck. Dead were Ara Lona Day, 59, of Kirbyville; his wife, Olivia, 40; two daughters and a son. The accident occurred nine miles west of Gainesville on U. S. Highway 82. The driver of the truck was not injured. Police are investigating the crash.

Home Is Most Dangerous Place in Nation, Statistics on Safety Conclude

Home, Sweet Home... alas, it is the most unsafe place in the nation. If you don't believe it, listen to these statistics from the Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council:

Nearly twice as many persons were killed in home accidents in 1957 (27,500) as were killed at work (14,200). And, more than 4,000,000 were injured.

Disabling injuries, including fatalities, occurred four times as frequently off the job as on the job.

What are the most common injuries at home? Falls accounted for 13,600 deaths of the 27,500 home fatalities. Of these deaths, 8.25 per cent were persons 65 years of age and older. Fire accounted for the next highest total of home deaths with a toll of 5,500.

Approximately four out of five fatal home accidents occur inside the house. Of these deaths, more than half happen in the bedroom, with the living room, dining room, kitchen, stairway and bathroom being the next most dangerous places, in that order. The principal accident type in each of these areas is falls.

Outside the house, the order of importance of places of fatal accidents is: Yard, steps, porch, garage, walks and roof. Again, with the exception of the garage, falls are the leading type of accidents in all of these places.

What can you do about these accidents?

The housewife, who among her manifold duties, may consider herself as also being the safety engineer of the home. She can do a lot to reduce the annual toll of home accidents.

First, by making sure she is not numbered among the victims, because of unsafe cleaning methods—such as may be encountered in spring or fall housecleaning.

Second, by using these semi-annual clean-up periods as a time for a close-up inspection of hazards around the house, yard and garage.

For the most part, common sense will tell you where and how to eliminate hazardous conditions. But for those who are uncertain as to just what should be done, most local safety councils, the Texas Safety Association or the National Safety Council will be happy to furnish a home safety inspection list upon request.

The most important thing is to start now to make Home, Sweet Home a Home, Safe Home.

Charlie T. Thompson Enlists in U. S. Army

Important Changes In New Income Tax Rulings for Farmers

There are two important changes in the new income tax ruling for 1958 which will be of special interest to both farmers and other professional workers in Jones County, points out Kirby Clayton, Jones County agent. The new rulings are:

1. Wheat and other commodities can now be sold and delivered to the buyer in one year with the proceeds received as taxable income in a later year.

2. Educational expenses of the taxpayer are deductible if (a) it maintains or improves one's skill in his business or profession; and (b) provided it is a requirement of the taxpayer's employer or the requirement of a law or regulation before the taxpayer can hold down his job.

Details of the two new changes are available in the county agent's office for those who are interested, Kirby asserts.

Pamphlet on Money Answer Problems of Youngsters of Today

From the time a youngster hears the first coin clink into his piggy bank he begins to have money trouble.

Mrs. Eula Newman, extension home management specialist, says the problem may be only a penny size one at first, but by the time he reaches his fifteenth or sixteenth birthday, dollars have become one of his biggest problems.

No matter how much money youngsters have, it always seems too little. They would like to have more, either in the form of bigger allowances or from a part-time job. They feel the need to meet the spending competition of fellow students and have some left over to save.

Money management has to be learned as does reading, writing and arithmetic, reminds the specialist. If your child begs and teases for nickels, dimes and quarters, you likely need to change your money management with him.

Many of the questions parents and youngsters ask about these problems are answered in the 4-H leaflet, "Where Do You Get Your Money?" by Mrs. Eula J. Newman, home management specialist, and C. H. Bates, farm management specialist.

Get a copy from your county extension agent's office. Call a family conference and help your youngsters improve their plan for spending.

AH, BUT THE FLAVOR.

Decorating Tricks Can Help to Make Bathroom Look Big

There are several decorating tricks you can use to give a feeling of spaciousness to even the smallest of bathrooms.

Use the same color tile for both floor and walls. Stronger shades should be used for accessories. An illusion of height is created by surfacing the walls in oblong tiles with the long side vertical. Strategic placing of mirrors and recessed light fixtures in the ceiling also serve to "extend" space.

Small bath tubs, featuring lower sides and extended apron seats for greater convenience, are finding their way into bathrooms where space is a problem. Light colors and frequent changes of accessories will keep even the smallest of bathrooms looking pretty and appealing.

IN GOOD COMPANY.

"Look, mother!" yelled little Willie. "There's a big black bear out in the back yard."

"Now, Willie, you know perfectly well that's Tom Jones' dog. Now go straight to your room and kneel down and ask God to forgive you for telling a fib."

Willie was back downstairs in a few moments.

"Did you ask God to forgive you?"

"Yep, I did," said Willie, "and He said it was all right. God said the first time He saw Tom Jones' dog, He thought it was a bear Himself."

Scourge of Grass Fires in Territory Sets New Record

A rash of grass and trash fires during the past eight weeks has racked up a record number of fire calls for the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department, according to Fire Chief James Josey.

Since June 1 the department has answered 41 alarms in the city limits and 14 in the rural areas close to Hamlin. All of these fires have been grass and trash fires—not one being to a major building or insured piece of property, Josey said.

The fire boys, on call at all hours of the day and night without pay, have made the runs, leaving their jobs and businesses in many instances.

Fortunately, Josey observes, in all these fires in the city limits only minor damage has been done to fences and one building. In the rural areas, much damage to pastures has been done by the fires, damages running into the thousands of dollars.

Josey points out that, although the department usually receives no remuneration for calls made outside the city limits, the boys have given much time to aiding farmers and ranchers during these fires.

Insured fire losses in Hamlin amounted to nearly $10,000 during the first two months of 1958, it is noted by the fire chief.

Josey urged people of the area to be careful with matches, cigarettes and other causes of most fires during the dry summer period.

J. W. Simmons New Magnolia Consignee

Formal announcement is being in this week's Herald of a transaction actually made several weeks ago whereby J. W. Simmons of Anson purchased the consignee business of A. (Sack) Hudson for Magnolia Petroleum Company. Details of the deal were only completed a few days ago. Simmons is Magnolia agent at Anson.

Offices of the consignee will continue to be at Ed Dodd service station, and Hudson will remain in charge. Simmons probably will move to Hamlin later, he declared.

Bill Adair Named President of New Area Riding Club

W. D. (Bill) Adair was elected president of the Hamlin Riding Club at the formal organization meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the Pied Piper Drive-In restaurant. Forty-eight men, women and children interested in the new organization attended the session.

Woodrow Simmons, new Magnolia consignee at Hamlin, presided at the session. He had had previous experience with riding clubs, and was helpful in formation plans. The club had been under consideration for several weeks for people of the territory.

Besides Adair, other officers elected at the Monday evening gathering were: L. C. Bonds, vice president; Mrs. John D. Ferguson, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. E. J. Hawkins and Roy Thompson, directors.

Plans were made for a ride and watermelon feast Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock. Those interested in becoming members of the Hamlin Riding Club are invited to bring their horses to the L. C. Bonds arena, north of town, and ride with the group. Annual membership dues were set at $10 per family.

The executive committee was invited to meet Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Hawkins to set up by-laws for the organization, and they will be presented at the Friday session.

Also to be discussed Friday will be arrangements for an arena for the riding club. A committee was named to inspect probable sites for the arena.

School Faculty Now About Completed

Faculty for the Hamlin Schools is about complete, reported Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook this week. An English teacher and probably a replacement in junior high school now are needed to complete the faculty of some 60 teachers in the five schools of the city.

C. E. Sanders, 56, Passes Thursday, Buried at Hamlin

Burial rites for C. E. Sanders, 56-year-old former resident of the community, were conducted Tuesday morning at 10:30 in Hamlin East Cemetery. Austin Siburt, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, officiated.

Sanders, who was a salesman for the Rich Food Plan, and made Odessa his home, died last Thursday at Artesia, New Mexico after a short illness.

He was born in 1902 at Ardmore, Oklahoma. He previously had been in the trucking business at Lovington, New Mexico.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at Artesia, New Mexico, and his body was brought to Hamlin for burial Tuesday morning.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Sanders; four sons, Kenneth Sanders and Marvin L. Sanders of Artesia, New Mexico, David Sanders of Hamlin and Hollis Sanders of Germany; one daughter, Mrs. Lois Manrow of Toledo, Ohio; four brothers, W. O. Sanders of Grants, New Mexico, A. D. Meade of Kansas, Sam Sanders of Portales, New Mexico, and C. H. Sanders of Oklahoma; one sister, Mrs. Leslie Gordon of Portales, New Mexico.

Farm Legislation for Acreage Relief Urged By Farm Bureau Head

Passage of new farm legislation for cotton and rice at this session of Congress is imperative, J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, has declared.

"Few people realize that unless something is done, we will have a cut of 30 per cent in cotton acreage and a 40 per cent slash in rice acres in 1959," the farm leader said.

West emphasized the Congress should pass the farm bill that has been approved by the Senate committee on agriculture. He was also critical of statements by some congressmen that no farm legislation would be passed until next session.

"Farmers are not as much concerned with politics as they are in making a living," he stated. "Experience has proven that it isn't possible to bring up legislation in January and pass it before planting time."

THIS IS YOUR HOME TOWN—SUPPORT ITS MERCHANTS!

What sort of world for them?

With mingled pride and wonder you watch them—absorbed in their play. How sure the young builder's touch... how graceful the deft girl-gestures! You treasure each promise for the future that shows in their choice of toys and activities.

And always in your heart is the prayer that they will grow up to a world as happy as the one you've made for them. A world full of opportunity, where each may choose the life work most satisfying and fulfilling.

There's one way to help make your dreams for them come true! Be on the watch for ideas that could deprive them of their right to free and independent action.

The idea, for instance, that "government should run such and such—a business, an institution, a service." Yet experience has shown that the more things government controls, the less freedom there is for the individual.

Use your "woman-power" to refute this idea that "government should run things." Remind those who are for such a theory that the loss of anybody's independence is a threat to everybody's freedom.

Very much aware of this danger are the independent electric light and power companies, because government already runs part of the electric business. And powerful people are pressing to take over more.

FFA Boys Making Good Progress on Livestock Projects

Good progress is being reported on the summer time registered hog program of boys of the vocational agriculture department of Hamlin High School, declares T. C. Blankinship, VA teacher and sponsor of the Future Farmers of America group of boys.

Boys have the biggest supply of high quality registered sows and pigs in the VA department's history, Blankinship says. Also several boys are promoting fine beef cattle projects while school is out.

Pre-School Grid Camp Scheduled August 25 for HHS

Pre-school football camp for athletes of Hamlin High School will start on Monday, August 25, one week before the formal opening of school, it is announced this week by Head Football Coach D. C. Andrews. Six strenuous days of "skull practice" and actual work-outs will be conducted, the coach declares.

The camp, which is conducted at the football field and field house at Pied Piper stadium in Southwest Hamlin, is expected to attract about 50 boys, the coach declares. The one-week pre-school camp is all the period allowed by regulations of the Texas Interscholastic League officials.

Assisting Andrews will be Jimmy Vaughan and Neil Laminack, assistant coaches at high school, and Harry Martin, football coach at Hamlin Junior High School.

Eight of last year's letter men will be returning to the HHS grid this fall around which a formidable team is expected to be molded. Several promising former B stringers will bolster the candidates for berths on the Pied Piper squad, which faces a strenuous 10-game schedule of matched play in the regular season.

Services Set Sunday By Primitive Baptists

Morning and evening services are scheduled by the Primitive Baptist Church Sunday at the Dovie community church, five miles east of Hamlin on the Stamford highway, church leaders announce.

Song service will begin at 10:00 a. m. Preaching will be at 11:00 a. m. and also 8:00 p. m. Elder Fred Boen is pastor of the church. "We enjoy our services very much, and urge others to come and join in worship with us," declares one of the church leaders. "We are thankful to our God in heaven for this little church and for the good people of the community for the use of the Dovie church house."

O. R. Lee, one of the church leaders, may be contacted for further information about the services or the congregation by telephoning 14-W or 45.

Calvary Church Talks New Building Again

Renewed interest in erection of a new church edifice for the Calvary Baptist Church congregation was manifested last Wednesday night, it is announced by Rev. G. C. Henry, pastor.

The church purchased lots in Northwest Hamlin several years ago as site for a new building, but the project was dropped due to drought conditions in the section.

The congregation has been worshipping for many years on South Central Avenue, near the McCauley highway Y.

First Floor of County Courthouse at Anson Being Air Conditioned

Before the summer is over the first floor offices of the Jones County courthouse at Anson will be air conditioned, according to County Judge H. G. (Pete) Andrews.

Contract for $14,000 was let on June 30 to Lone Star Gas Company for the job. Actual work began July 11.

The system being installed is known as the "chilled water" conditioner. Chilled water is induced into radiators in each office and fanned out into the rooms. In winter the same pipes and radiators diffuse heat through the fan method.

"Plans are to extend the system to other floors in the next year or two," Judge Andrews said.

School Officials Go to Accounting Clinic

Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. C. F. Cook and Mrs. D. C. Andrews left Tuesday for Dallas and Denton. They will return this week-end.

At Denton Superintendent Cook and Mrs. Andrews, his secretary, will attend a workshop on school accounting sponsored by the Texas State Board of Education Tuesday through Thursday. At Dallas the Cooks will meet their son, C. F. Jr. of New Jersey, who is on his way to the Texas Coast for conferences on electronics for the Army.

Cotton Defoliation Guides Are Available

Supplies of the cotton defoliation guide for Texas are now in the hands of county agents over Texas. This leaflet, L-145, gives a complete run-down on dusts and sprays for defoliation where cotton is to be harvested mechanically.

Where cotton is to be harvested with strippers, growers will find information on desiccants for use with this type of harvesting. Also included is information on rates per acre and instructions for using the different chemicals.

Copies of this leaflet, "Cotton Defoliation Guide," can be obtained from the county agent's office in Anson.

Former residents of Hopkins and Franklin Counties residing in the Hamlin area are being notified this week of the forthcoming Hopkins-Franklin County reunion scheduled Sunday, August 10, at McKenzie State Park in Lubbock.

VARYING MARKS.

Two morons each had a horse, but they could never decide which horse belonged to which moron. They cut off the mane of one horse, but it grew back. They cut off the tail of the other, but it, too, grew back. Then they measured both horses and found that the white horse was four inches taller than the black one.

American Forces Sent to Lebanon to Preserve Independence, Says Johnson

American forces were sent to Lebanon for one reason and one reason only—to preserve the independence of a strife torn nation, declares U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson in his weekly news letter to The Herald. His release continues: The action was taken on the appeal of the Lebanese government. It followed a tragic series of events in the Middle East—an area of the world that is crucial in the struggle to maintain freedom.

The armed forces of the United States have been committed. At the present time no one can foresee the future clearly. But, whatever the future may hold in store for us, the American people will be united. We will make it clear to the aggressors that this country is determined to maintain freedom in the world.

Free men are capable of attaining the highest form of unity and of meeting any crisis, no matter how severe.

The cold war continues. The basic communist objective in this cold war is the isolation of the United States. The communists have made frightening progress during the 13 years since the end of World War II. If they now succeed in their aim of isolating the United States, we will have lost the cold war.

And if we should lose the cold war, we will have lost just about everything that is important to us, except life itself, without a shot having been fired.

World trade is a potent weapon in the cold war between the free nations and the communist areas. In addition, the two-way flow of trade between the United States and other countries vitally affects the economic well-being of our people.

The reciprocal trade agreements program, up for consideration in the Senate this week, was initiated in 1934 and has been extended at regular intervals since then. It is an important and necessary program, one of tremendous importance to the nation and of particular importance to Texas.

Many jobs in Texas depend—directly and indirectly—on the buying and selling of goods between the United States and other nations. These jobs are in industry, in agriculture, in the important Texas ports, and in business organizations that sell products and services to Texans employed in foreign trade occupations.

The one purpose of the reciprocal trade agreements program is to increase the flow of commerce between the United States and other countries. It is based on the simple fact that if we are to be able to sell to other nations we must be prepared to buy from other nations.

The trade program works. The United States is now selling some $20,000,000,000 worth of goods annually to the rest of the world. And Texas, as a state where export and import is of great economic importance, has a very large stake in continuance of the reciprocal trade agreements program.

The Herald has carbon paper.

L. H. McBride of Hamlin Named to NLFA Directory

L. H. McBride, Hamlin mayor, businessman and farm operator has been selected to succeed the late Joe L. Culbertson as a member of the board of directors of the National Farm Loan Association of Haskell. That association is the result of the consolidation of similar organizations in Anson, Haskell and Seymour, and it will make and service Federal Land Bank loans in Haskell, Jones, Baylor and Knox Counties.

McBride was formerly a director of the constituent Jones County NFILA. Joe Breed of Anson is assistant secretary-treasurer and loan manager of the newly consolidated association and will maintain an office in Anson for the new association at the same location of the old Jones County NFILA.

Breed explains that the Jones County members of the new association will continue to conduct their business with the Anson office. He advises, however, that the Anson office will be open mornings, and that he will ordinarily devote the afternoons to field work.

McBride and Breed also announce that Federal Land Bank appraisal standards have recently been increased on better quality farms and ranches. It is indicated that a 20 to 25 per cent increase in loans may be permitted under this new policy on the most desirable and saleable properties.

Also other improvements, including new screen doors and a back step, have been added. The forum is indebted to W. O. Willbanks for free labor on these jobs.

Next regular meeting of the forum will be September 9, which is the next fifth Tuesday of this calendar year.

B. V. Newberry to Act as President For Lions Group

B. V. Newberry, Hamlin High School principal, long time member of the Lions Club, former zone chairman and deputy district governor, will act as president of Hamlin Lions Club after September 1, when President Stan Sheppard moves to Texas City. It was announced at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the local civic club at the oil mill guest house. Sheppard was elected several weeks ago following resignation of Miller Harmon.

Hamlin Rotary Club members and wives accepted an invitation of the Lions to attend a joint session of the clubs at a picnic on the evening of Tuesday, August 26, at the Hamlin City Park. James Josey and L. H. McBride will arrange the program. No noon luncheon meeting of the Lions Club will be held that Tuesday, it was announced.

President Sheppard noted that the club's July attendance was 88.2 per cent.

District officials, it was announced, for the coming year will be Marvin B. Simpson of Fort Worth, District 2-T-2 governor; Walter Pope of Abilene, deputy district governor; Glen Russell of Breckenridge, zone chairman.

Guests at the Tuesday luncheon included John Traube of Clinton, Iowa, who soon will move to Hamlin to be connected with the Celotex Corporation plant; Buck Elliott and Don Bailey of Stamford.

Lowe, resident of Jones County since 1928, died at 8:00 p. m. last Thursday in Stamford Sanitarium. He was a veteran of World War I. Burial was in the Tuxedo cemetery under the direction of Kinney Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife of Stamford; three sons, Garland, Kenneth and Tommy Ray Lowe, all of Stamford; three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Rorie of Stamford, Mrs. Ruby Rorie of Dover, Delaware, and Mrs. LaFerne Wagner of Hamlin; one brother, Homer Lowe of Hubbard; and nine grandchildren.

Hamlin Firemen Go To Drills Regularly

Hamlin has one of the most hard working and efficient volunteer fire departments anywhere. It is pointed out by Fire Chief James Josey this week as he tabulated records of regular drills of the firemen.

During the first quarter of this year fire drills for the firemen were attended by 81 per cent of the men on the force. During the second quarter 82 per cent attendance was recorded.

Josey declares that the regular training sessions for the firemen account for credits on fire insurance rates.

Four Juvenile Books Donated to Library

Four new books have been put in the Hamlin Memorial Library within the last few days by the Hamlin Woman's Forum.

These books were selected by the library committee because of their special interest to juvenile readers. They are "Miracles on Maple Hill" by Virginia Sorensen (a Newberry medal award winner), "Buttons in the Back" by Elizabeth Kirkland, "The Dog Who Wouldn't Be" by Farley Mowat, and "Rifles for Watley," another Newberry award winner.

Mrs. W. O. Willbanks, librarian, reports there is quite a bit of renewed interest in the library.

THE DAUGHTER of this columnist and his wife, Annetta Jeanne Rollins, was responsible for the relief of a lot of anxiety and hoping when she presented us old folks with a brand new granddaughter Wednesday.

With two grandsons in the son June family, and another grandson in Jeanne's, we all had secret hopes that the new youngster would be a little gal.

Went down to see the new sissy last Thursday. There she lay in her bassinet at the hospital with a smile on her face as if she had just paid her income tax—not a worry in the world.

We commented to a hospital nurse, "The new baby has its father's eyes and its mother's nose."

And then Grandma Jones commented, "Yes, and if Grandpa doesn't stop leaning over the crib it's going to have his teeth!"

Cut it out, now!

DAN CASSE of Abilene, with the public relations department of West Texas Utilities Company, was an interesting narrator the other day at a Rotary Club luncheon meeting in Hamlin. Dan prefaced his remarks with the assertion that he was no relation to Arlie Casse of Hamlin. "Arlie is of the educated and rich line of Casse's, while I'm of the ignorant and poor lineage."

In explaining that he endeavored to talk on the problems faced by business and professional men with their employees and their patrons, he asserted that he was not a psychiatrist but an industrial psychologist.

Casse had charts cleverly painted to illustrate his points about the different types of people that made his talk interesting and practical to the luncheon attendees—interesting to the point that some came to believe before he closed that he was distantly related to the intelligent Casse's.

A NICE PERSON was pictured back about 1825 by Sydney Smith. Most of those principles still mark a nice person. He wrote:

A nice person is neither too tall nor too short, looks clean and cheerful, has no prominent features, makes no difficulties, is never misplaced . . . is never foolishly affronted, and is void of affectations.

A nice person helps you well at dinner, understands you, is always gratefully received by young and old, Whig and Tory, grave and gay.

There is something in the very air of a nice person which inspires you with confidence, makes you talk, and talk without fear of malicious misrepresentation; you feel that you are reposing upon a nature which God has made kind, and created for the benefit and happiness of society . . .

A nice person is clear of little, trumpery passions, acknowledges superiority, delights in talent, shelters humility, pardons adversity, forgives deficiency, respects all men's rights . . . always knows the day of the month, the names of everybody at the table, and never gives pain to any human being.

If anybody is wanted for a party a nice person is the first thought of; when the child is christened, when the daughter is married—all the joys of life are communicated to the nice people . . .

A nice person never knocks over wine or melted butter, does not tread upon the dog's foot, or molest the family cat, eats soup without noise, laughs in the right place, and has a watchful and attentive eye.

"SEEMS LIKE just a little while ago that I started to work in a Hamlin bank," declared Lennie Greenway Monday as she and friends celebrated 40 years of service in various capacities in two banks at Hamlin.

"Those 40 years have been happy ones, for the most part," Miss Lennie as she is affectionately called by thousands of friends, said. "Of course, there have been ups and downs in the banking business, just like there have been in every other business. I have ridden through two depressions, and I am happy to say that the good people of the Hamlin territory are the finest in all the world today."

Don't forget that you are part of all those people who can be so glad some of the time.

CHANGING TIMES—The wetback business is not what it used to be in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas. Years ago thousands of wetbacks crossed the Rio Grande at this point just south of San Benito. But today, instead of a wetback, Border Patrol Inspector James E. Seabourn finds pretty Gwen Johns of Harlingen swimming.

Elevator Additions Going Upward Fast

Additions to the elevator plant of Fred B. Moore & Son in East Hamlin that will add 550,000 bushels to the present 900,000-bushel capacity were making fast headway this week as a big crew of men and machinery were pouring concrete around the clock.

Youths Will Sponsor Revival Next Week At Methodist Church

Forty Years of Banking Duty Seems Like Just a Little While to Miss Lennie

Lennie Greenway, vice president and cashier of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank at Hamlin, Monday celebrated 40 years of service to the community as a member of the banking staff.

And it wasn't as if the 40 years meant that she was older. She had the glint in her eye of a 17-year-old lass blooming into young womanhood. Her jolly, pleasant attitude was as fresh Monday as it was four decades ago, many of her friends would tell you.

During the day, Miss Lennie, as she is affectionately called by thousands of friends she has accumulated through the years, was greeted by scores of visitors to the bank Monday as word got around that this was a milestone in her banking career.

She recalled that on August 4, 1918, she began her banking career with the old First National Bank, which, incidentally, was located on the site of the present F. & M. Bank. B. L. Jones was cashier of that bank at the time, and he gave her early tutoring in the banking business that was stretched across two score years. In 1934 she went with the consolidated institution after F. & M. purchased the First National.

In looking back over the years, Miss Lennie recalled that she had been on the job pretty steadily. "I have been absent from work less than 10 days because of illness," proudly asserted the loyal bank employee.

Officials and employees of the bank made a celebration out of the occasion Monday afternoon after closing hours by staging a little party in the bank. President and Mrs. Tate May brought home-made cake and ice cream to the bank offices and served Miss Lennie and her associates, and wished her many more years of active life.

The bank presented the long time employee a certificate good for a new watch is a token of remembrance and appreciation.

Fair and Rodeo at Roby Expanded To Three Days

Catalogs and advertising materials are being printed this week in the Herald printing department for the thirteenth annual Fisher County Fair and Rodeo, to be staged at Roby Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 28, 29 and 30.

The show, which has grown to be one of the major affairs of its kind in Central West Texas, is being enlarged this year. The fair exhibits will be for all three days instead of a one-day event as heretofore. County Agents James Norman and Alice Kemp are leaders in the fair division of the annual exhibition. An even 100 items have been listed in the fair catalog for ribbon awards.

Exhibits of livestock in dairy cattle, beef cattle and swine also will highlight the fair displays.

A special quarter horse section will feature animals under sponsorship of the American Quarter Horse Association.

Top entertainment feature, of course, will be the three rodeo performances scheduled for 8:00 o'clock each evening. Rodeo officials said this week that they expected more than 200 contestants for the rodeo events that include bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, Brahma bull riding, calf roping, double mugging and girls' three-barrel cloverleaf race. More than $1,450 in cash prizes have been posted for winners in these events.

Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by Goat Mayo of Petrolia. Special clown acts have been added to the rodeo performances.

Admission to the fair is free. Rodeo admission prices will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Pest Control Clinic Set Today at Anson

There will be a livestock pest control clinic in the Anson courthouse at 9:00 o'clock this (Thursday) morning, according to announcement by County Agent Kirby Clayton.

Dr. Manning Price, with the Texas A. & M. Extension Service, will discuss livestock pests and their control. All livestock producers are urged to attend this meeting.

Two-County Singing Set Sunday at Hamlin

Singers and song lovers of the Hamlin area will meet Sunday afternoon at the Foursquare Gospel Church in Hamlin for the regular Jones and Fisher County singing.

Singing will get underway at 2:00 o'clock, and the public is invited. The church is located at the corner of Southwest Avenue D and First Street.

BACK TO WASHINGTON—U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough and Mrs. Yarborough wave to friends as they boarded a plane for Washington after his decisive victory for renomination in the Democratic primary, tantamount to election in Texas. Yarborough, who won a special Senate election in 1957, was nominated for a six-year term.

Area Highway Jobs Continue To Spark Economy at Hamlin

Tag Day Designed To Raise Library Funds Set Aug. 19

A tag day designed to raise needed funds for expansion and improvement of the Harden Memorial Library in Hamlin has been set for Tuesday, August 19, by members of the Hamlin Woman's Forum, sponsoring organization.

The campaign will be conducted by the community affairs, the finance and public affairs committees of the forum.

A concerted drive for donations to the library fund will be conducted throughout the city. Donors will be tagged with appropriate ribbons, it is announced.

Mrs. Dean Witt is chairman of community affairs, and her committee includes Mmes. J. E. McCoy, R. L. McClung, J. D. Murphy and Tarlton Willingham and Miss Pearl Hudson.

Mrs. L. C. Bonds is chairman of finance, and her committee includes Mmes. G. L. Masser, Fred Young, J. B. Terrell, M. S. Johnson, Eddie Jay and M. L. Smith. Mrs. Earl Smith is chairman of public affairs, and committee members are Mmes. S. C. Ferguson, Ira Parker, Weldon Carlton and Kenneth Riddle.

"Wear a ribbon and show your support of the library."

Forty years of service in the banks of Hamlin was celebrated Monday by Lennie Greenway (above), vice president and cashier of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank. Spry and active, she began work August 4, 1918, at the old First National Bank, later purchased by the F. & M. She was honored at a party by bank associates.

RETURN FROM VACATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moore and sons returned Friday from a several day vacation. They visited at Corpus Christi and Austin, being guests in the capital city of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Don Hymmer, who are students at University of Texas.

Grain of All Ages To Make Harvest Long Drawn-Out

Movement of a good sized maize crop in the Hamlin territory was gaining added impetus this week as farmers were harvesting the earlier crops of the head grains.

Because of wide variance in the planting of maize over the area, the harvest this year will be a long, drawn out affair, buyers declared this week. Some maize was harvested as early as July 10, but the bulk of the crop will not move for two or three weeks yet, it is believed.

Although rains during the past few weeks have been spotted, there are all sorts of crop conditions reported. Some maize will be of top quality, while the bulk of the crop will probably be only fair.

Most early feed will turn out pretty well. Much of the crop planted at normal time has been burning mighty bad, and heads in many cases are immature. Outcome of the late planted maize is still in doubt. Good rains within a few days could make it turn out well, farmers believe.

Market Poultry & Egg, Texas Feed & Grain Company and F. B. Moore Grain Company are well prepared to handle all the grain coming to Hamlin.

One of the buyers Tuesday explained that a cash price of $1.65 per 100 pounds for No. 2 maize with 14 per cent moisture is being paid. Maize with 15 per cent moisture is quoted at $1.60.

Government loan rate was $1.54 per 100 pounds. Broken down, this is the Gulf Coast price of $2.35, less 44 cents for freight, 16 cents for handling, 20 cents for prepaid storage and one cent for loan clerk fee, leaving the Hamlin rate $1.54.

Above-100 Degree Temperatures Persist

Hamlin area people continued to mop their brows the past week as above-100 degree weather persisted. And three was no let-up of high temperatures in sight except for possible thunderstorm action that would tip the mercury temporarily.

Readings at 4:30 p. m. at the Santa Fe Railway depot for the past eight days follow: July 29, 106; July 30, 110; July 31, 112; August 1, 104; August 2, 104; August 3, 103; August 4, 106; August 5, 102.

Science Equipment Added at DePriest

New science equipment is being added to facilities of DePriest Colored School at Hamlin in the high school division, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook. Improvements in other departments also are being made to broaden the scope of work at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rollins of Abilene are announcing the arrival last Wednesday at St. Ann's Hospital in Abilene of a daughter. Weighing seven pounds 14 ounces, the young lady was named Regina Kaye. Mrs. Rollins is the daughter of Publisher and Mrs. Willard Jones of The Herald.

Two new citizens have been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. A boy and a girl, they are:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Prather of Sweetwater was born July 31. Weighing a heavy eight pounds five ounces, the youngster accepted Jackie Ray for a label.

A girl arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gonzales on July 31. The little miss, who tipped the scales at six pounds 13 ounces, declared Elva Anita would suit her for a name.

Grain Storage to Be Topic at Anson Meet

There will be a grain sorghum storage meeting in the Anson courthouse at 2:00 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon, it is announced by County Agent Kirby Clayton.

Bill Allen, extension service engineer, will discuss the storage situation. The extension entomologist will discuss the stored grain pests. Then a man from the Commodity Credit Corporation will discuss the ASC loan.

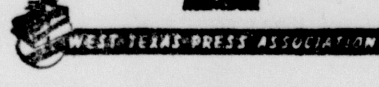

EXERCISES PET—Ruthanne Self, 14, of Dallas lets Pharoah, a pet lion cub, test his legs in her yard. Pharoah arrived in Dallas from Indiana and was given to Ruthanne by Edward of Little Rock, Arkansas. He will stay around the house until he blossoms into a full fledged lion that likes to eat meat instead of things like his first meal of milk and syrup.

COTTON COULD EXPAND WITHOUT CONTROLS

The market for cotton will expand again, instead of continuing to shrink, when enough cotton farmers recognize that their prosperity depends on these factors: Freedom to manage their own business; efficient operation, volume of sales as much as price and realization that excessive price kills markets.

That's what Lamar Fleming Jr. told several hundred leaders in the cotton industry at the American Cotton Congress at Harlingen the other day. Fleming is board chairman of Anderson, Clayton & Company, world's largest cotton firm.

Speaking about present crippling government cotton controls, Fleming said, "There is no use continuing to rely on old approaches that heretofore have failed of their purpose and that are too costly to the rest of the American taxpayers and consumers—the more so since numerically farmers and cotton growers are diminishing proportions of the electorate—the cotton growers a very small proportion."

Fleming pointed out that the livestock people are doing well and that they survived the drought; that the soybean growers are doing well, as are growers of most crops in which there has been little or no government intervention. "The complaints come mostly from growers of the crops that have become most dependent on price support and most subject to government regulation of acreages," he said.

"Our natural resources for lucrative cotton production are not hill-sides or rolling contours, but are the flat lands that lend themselves to maximum mechanization—particularly flat lands that are irrigable."

What about the marginal cotton farmer? "I believe the real help to people in this category is to help them get out of it—not just to save their misery and keep them in it," he added.

He advocated getting rid of government regulation of acreages as soon as practicable, so that efficient cotton growing operations would be freed to achieve maximum efficiency. But, he said, support should be retained at some disaster insurance level.

Export "dumping" and subsidies so inequitable and harmful to our mills and contrary to our general international policies should be ended. And we should help the marginal cotton farmer find better use for his farm, a better farm or a better job, Fleming said.

Satan's Auction

Once upon a time Satan, growing old and weary, decided to retire from active work and move to cooler climes. So he offered all of his devilish inventory of tools for sale to the highest bidder. An auction date was arranged, and all prospective buyers were duly notified that bargains were to be had.

When the bidders arrived, they found all tools neatly arrayed—quite a task when you think of their ugliness and misshapen contours. There were Envy, Deceit, Sensuality, Malice, Enmity, Thoughtlessness and all the other devices which Satan wielded so expertly. Each was plainly marked, and the prices were surprisingly low.

Except, that is, for one ungainly piece of much-used apparatus marked Discouragement. Its price was higher by far than that of the other tools.

"Why, Mr. Satan," asked one of the bidders, do you want so much for this tool?"

"My friends," replied the Old Tempter, "this tool has always been my most useful one. You can see that it has had more wear than the rest. It is used as a wedge to get into a man's mind when all other means fail. Discouragement, once inside the consciousness of a man, will cause him to do anything I want. Practically every human being has had this tool used on him, although very few of them know that I'm the one who is wielding it. So, even though it doesn't look it, Discouragement is the finest device that Hades, Inc. has ever owned, and it certainly should bring in the largest price."

As it worked out, none of the shoppers could afford to pay the price for Discouragement that Satan demanded. Since he will not reduce the price one cent, he is still using it; and we can see the results every day.

Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

Fry's Cafe, one of the oldest establishments in Hamlin, was sold Monday by Loy Fry to Earl Edwards of Moran.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Items of interest in the news 20 years ago at Hamlin included the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 5, 1938:

W. L. Cash, long time railroad man on the Santa Fe, has retired from active duty. He has lived in Christoval since 1930, but now he has returned to Hamlin to make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis are on their vacation in New Mexico.

Little Mary Nell Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cooper of the Cooper Ranch, is at home again after spending two months with her aunt, Mrs. George P. Droko, in San Antonio.

TEN YEARS AGO.

From the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 13, 1948, the following news briefs of 10 years ago are reprinted:

Hamlin Schools are scheduled to start September 6, according to Superintendent I. R. Huchingson.

Assurance that money for the Neinda-to-Boyd's Chapel farm-to-market road will soon be available was given this week by J. S. Treadway, district highway engineer at Abilene.

Hamlin's teen-age softball team, the Mighty Mice, left Thursday morning for Houston, where they will participate in a state softball tournament.

Approaching marriage of Phyllis Jo Richardson to Larry McCoy was announced at a tea Friday afternoon in the Thomas Ferguson home.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Files of five years ago reveal the following news items of the community five years ago, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 14, 1953:

About 500 feet of old gas main lines in the alley just west of South Central Avenue in the business section were replaced this week by a crew under direction of Jake Lawson, local Lone Star Gas Company manager. The line was originally installed in 1929.

Scattered rains in the area first of the week that measured from one-quarter to one-half inch will be of some benefit to crops. An estimated 200 to 300 acres of cotton in the Fairview and Dovie communities was ruined by accompanying hail.

ONE YEAR AGO.

News events in the area of one year ago included the following, reprinted from the issue of The Herald dated August 8, 1957:

Up to four inches of rain fell in the Hamlin region Monday morning that gave crops a big boost. Best rains fell five to eight miles south of town, only .76 of an inch being recorded at the city pump station.

Workmen and big machines of A. & A. Construction Company of Olney made a fast start on widening the Hamlin-to-Anson highway project this week.

Austin.—During much of the last century Texas was called the great land frontier. Word got around. From older regions came the restless, the ambitious, the hopeful who'd heard there was plenty of room in Texas.

Today, the sod huts and free land are gone from Texas. But the frontier is regarded by economists as greater than ever—rich and promising beyond Moses Austin's boldest dreams. A recent survey by a national magazine (U. S. News & World Report) described Texas as destined to become "the new powerhouse of the United States... an industrial empire... built on a storehouse of priceless natural resources."

Sounds wonderful. But Texas leaders, in both government and industry, have taken the position that favorable circumstances alone will not convert frontier to empire. Other states are angling, too, for energetic men with capital and know-how to start new factories, humming.

And most states are not hampered, as Texas is, by a constitutional provision prohibiting use of tax money to advertise the state's advantages.

Despite this hindrance, the last Legislature, at Governor Price Daniel's request, reactivated the Texas Industrial Commission to start the ball rolling. E. B. Germany of Dallas is commission chairman.

In operation only four months, with a piggy bank budget of voluntary donations, the commission is, nevertheless, making itself felt.

Its showpiece is a 68-page, two-color brochure called "A Plan of Action to Win New Industry for Your Community." This do-it-yourself manual was mailed to every Chamber of Commerce, mayor, county judge, industrial foundation and legislator in Texas.

Letters of commendation and requests for extra copies have "poured in," according to Bob Bray, member of the governor's staff assigned to the commission. Said a letter from the Huntsville and Walker County Chamber of Commerce, "Never have we seen any publication so full of excellent guidance material for communities..."

With the letter came a contribution to carry on the commission's work.

Next big goal is passage in November of a constitutional amendment to remove the legal shackles on financing. "Failure of the amendment," said Bray, "will handcuff the commission. Our big job now is selling Texans on the need to sell Texas, both industry wise and tourist wise."

With funds and staff, the commission will be ready to go ahead on an extensive effort—already mapped out—for research, information, advertisements, films, aid to local organizations, etc.

Says Germany, "Disastrous droughts, the alarming loss of rural population and the stark realization that the state no longer can depend on its oil revenue, all emphasize the need for developing our industrial resources."

Schools "Bust Out"—Some seam splitting from Texas' expanding population was reflected in the reports of Texas Education Agency survey teams on conditions in the state's public schools.

As a result of the reports to the State Commission on Accreditation nine schools were removed from the accredited list, and accreditation was withheld from six others. Fifty-one were warned they face loss of accreditation unless they improve standards.

Most of the schools' troubles seemed to stem from pupil populations and needs that outran com-unity leadership and financing. Samples from the unfavorable reports: Not enough textbooks, few or no library books, no laboratory facilities for science courses, unsanitary or outmoded facilities, use of condemned or "miserably over-crowded" buildings, teachers instructing courses in which they had had no college study.

Actually, the number of schools having trouble meeting standards was only about 3.5 per cent of the total—or 66 out of Texas' approximately 1,800 school districts.

New Roads Ahead.—Better driving days are seen ahead as the State Highway Department unveiled its plans for 1959-60 interstate highway building.

A $260,000,000 program has been authorized to add 567 miles of controlled-access highways to Texas' portion of the national network.

Of this, $210,495,300 is earmarked for construction, $16,272,100 for right-of-way buying and an additional $33,322,500 for advance right-of-way buying.

Eventually, Texas is to have 3,033 miles of the interstate system within its borders.

Fresh Start.—National Bankers Life Insurance Company of Dallas may continue in business, but without the control of its founder and majority stockholder, Pierce Brooks.

This was the effect of a ruling by State Insurance Commissioner William A. Harrison after a three-day hearing on NABILCO's affairs. State officials conceded the solvency of the company, but objected to certain investments and management practices.

Result: Brooks' controlling interest has been signed over to a trustee. Brooks has said he will sell the stock as soon as the transaction can be arranged.

Still Need a Jury.—Before going into summer recess until October 1, Texas Supreme Court has knocked down a portion of the state's new mental health code.

It declared unconstitutional the part which denies a jury trial to a mental patient seeking to have a court declare he is sane again.

High court also closed the door to any further consideration as to whether price advertising of eye glasses is legal. In a ruling last month the court held that a new state law does not bar optometrists from advertising prices as long as the ads are not fraudulent or misleading. It's definite now that optometrists can advertise and quote prices in their ads.

Short Shorts.—Any truck operating for hire between two cities, even if it never gets outside the cities, needs a permit from the Texas Railroad Commission, according to an attorney general's ruling. Opinion applied specifically to trucks on the Dallas-Fort Worth turnpike, never actually "out of the city." ... A bit of Texas will go to England in the form of a plaque to be placed on the building in London which served as the Texas legation to

Information About Federal Gas Tax Now Available to Farmers

Approximately 45,000 North Texas farmers are expected to file claims for the refund of the federal excise tax on gasoline, according to A. E. Fogle Jr., administrative officer of the Abilene office.

Under the law enacted on April 2, 1956, farmers are entitled to claim refund each year for the three cents a gallon federal excise tax on gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes. Farmers can obtain publication No. 308 from their local Internal Revenue Service office or from their county agent. This 15-page pamphlet explains in detail how to file the claim for refund.

Forms 2240, the farmers' gas tax refund claim form, is also available at county agents' offices as well as Internal Revenue Service offices.

September 30 is the deadline for filing a claim for refund on the taxes covering the fiscal year from July 1, 1957, through June 30, 1958.

New Wildcat and Plugging of Three Features Oil Scene

Staking of a new wildcat and plugging of three other wildcats in the Hamlin territory highlighted the oil activity in the area of the past several days.

Jim B. Curry et al of Abilene staked the No. 2 Kenneth Scott as a new project in the new Carol Ann Tannehill Field, five miles north of Hamlin. Slated for 2,990 feet with rotary equipment, it spots 330 feet from the south and 990 feet from the west lines of the northwest quarter of Section 152, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey. It is an east offset to the same operator's No. 1 Scott, discovery and lone producer in the field.

Two wildcats drilled in Southeast Stonewall County, six miles northeast of Hamlin, were plugged. Wes-Tex Drilling Company and Hill & Hill No. 1-123 Swenson Land & Cattle Company, in Section 123, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey, was plugged at 3,230 feet. The other dry hole was Norwood Oil Company of Wichita Falls No. 1-B Swenson Land & Cattle Company, in Section 114, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey, which was drilled to 3,199 feet.

Roy Guffey Production Company of Abilene No. 1 A. E. Black et al, wildcat five miles southwest of Neida in J. S. Hail Survey 2, was plugged at 3,584 feet.

ENTIRE FAMILY KILLED IN CRASH—An East Texas family of five was wiped out near Gainesville when this car in which they were riding collided with a heavy truck. Dead were Ara Lona Day, 59, of Kirbyville; his wife, Olivia, 40; two daughters and a son. The accident occurred nine miles west of Gainesville on U. S. Highway 82. The driver of the truck was not injured. Police are investigating the crash.

Home Is Most Dangerous Place in Nation, Statistics on Safety Conclude

Home, Sweet Home... alas, it is the most unsafe place in the nation. If you don't believe it, listen to these statistics from the Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council:

Nearly twice as many persons were killed in home accidents in 1957 (27,500) as were killed at work (14,200). And, more than 4,000,000 were injured.

Disabling injuries, including fatalities, occurred four times as frequently off the job as on the job.

What are the most common injuries at home? Falls accounted for 13,600 deaths of the 27,500 home fatalities. Of these deaths, 8.25 per cent were persons 65 years of age and older. Fire accounted for the next highest total of home deaths with a toll of 5,500.

Approximately four out of five fatal home accidents occur inside the house. Of these deaths, more than half happen in the bedroom, with the living room, dining room, kitchen, stairway and bathroom being the next most dangerous places, in that order. The principal accident type in each of these areas is falls.

Outside the house, the order of importance of places of fatal accidents is: Yard, steps, porch, garage, walks and roof. Again, with the exception of the garage, falls are the leading type of accidents in all of these places.

What can you do about these accidents?

The housewife, who among her manifold duties, may consider herself as also being the safety engineer of the home. She can do a lot to reduce the annual toll of home accidents.

First, by making sure she is not numbered among the victims, because of unsafe cleaning methods—such as may be encountered in spring or fall housecleaning.

Second, by using these semi-

Final Services for Mrs. M. T. Via Held Thursday

Final rites for another Hamlin pioneer, Mrs. M. T. Via, were conducted last Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, of which she was a long time member. Officiating was the pastor, Rev. Edmund W. Robb.

Mrs. Via, who had been a resident of the Hamlin community since 1913, died early last Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Culbertson, following a heart attack. She was 80 years old.

A native of Fannin County, Mrs. Via was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Tucker, having been born April 3, 1873. She married M. T. Via at Bailey on January 26, 1896. Her husband died on February 23, 1930.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Ewell Delk, E. E. Reynolds, Milton Bowdry, Art Newcomb, Joe Simpson and Arlie Casale.

Surviving the octogenarian are four sons, Hubert Via of Vernon, E. P. Via of San Bernardino, California, Charles Ray Via of Baytown and Howard Via of Highland; two daughters, Mrs. Joe Culbertson of Hamlin and Judy Via of Breckenridge; two half-brothers, Charlie Brownfield of Albany and Lee Brownfield of Big Spring; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A. Cox at Lueders; Johnny Hansen at Ericksdahl; J. D. Adams at Plainview; and Gary Cauble at Hamlin.

annual clean-up periods as a time for a close-up inspection of hazards around the house, yard and garage.

For the most part, common sense will tell you where and how to eliminate hazardous conditions. But for those who are uncertain as to just what should be done, most local safety councils, the Texas Safety Association or the National Safety Council will be happy to furnish a home safety inspection list upon request.

The most important thing is to start now to make Home, Sweet Home a Home, Safe Home.

Charlie T. Thompson Enlists in U. S. Army

Enlisting first of the week for a three-year stretch of duty in the United States Army was Charlie T. Thompson of Hamlin. The son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson, the 19-year-old lad was assigned for basic training at Fort Carson, Colorado. After eight weeks at that point, and then a two-week leave, Thompson will be assigned to Norfolk, Virginia, for further Army training.

Master Sergeant Drue McBride of the Stamford office of Army recruitment announced the enlistment. He comes to Hamlin on Fridays, but may be contacted at Stamford other days of the week, he declares.

Mrs. D. C. Andrews New School Secretary

Mrs. D. C. Andrews, wife of the head football coach at Hamlin High School, has been named secretary for Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook. It is announced by the school head this week.

Mrs. Andrews, who has had previous secretarial experience, replaces Mrs. Marvin Carlton, who resigned several weeks ago. Mrs. Carlton has been secretary for the superintendent's office for seven years.

Tommy F. West Gets Promotion in Army

Specialist West entered the Army in May, 1956, and arrived in Europe in December, 1957. The 20-year-old soldier attended Hamlin High School.

New Phone Building Going Up at Anson

Anson is getting a new telephone building that will house new offices and dial system equipment for the county seat and surrounding territory.

Foundation has been run for the new Southwestern Bell Telephone Company building at the north-eastern corner of Avenue J and 11th Street. The new headquarters should be completed early in 1959, according to Jim Garrett, district manager.

Overall cost will be approximately $236,000. The new quarters will be of masonry, with brick exterior, 73 feet wide and 34 feet deep.

Important Changes In New Income Tax Rulings for Farmers

There are two important changes in the new income tax ruling for 1958 which will be of special interest to both farmers and other professional workers in Jones County, points out Kirby Clayton, Jones County agent. The new rulings are:

1. Wheat and other commodities can now be sold and delivered to the buyer in one year with the proceeds received as taxable income in a later year.

2. Educational expenses of the taxpayer are deductible if (a) it maintains or improves one's skill in his business or profession; and (b) provided it is a requirement of the taxpayer's employer or the requirement of a law or regulation before the taxpayer can hold down his job.

Details of the two new changes are available in the county agent's office for those who are interested, Kirby asserts.

Decorating Tricks Can Help to Make Bathroom Look Big

There are several decorating tricks you can use to give a feeling of spaciousness to even the smallest of bathrooms.

Use the same color tile for both floor and walls. Stronger shades should be used for accessories. An illusion of height is created by surfacing the walls in oblong tiles with the long side vertical. Strategic placing of mirrors and recessed light fixtures in the ceiling also serve to "extend" space.

Small bath tubs, featuring lower sides and extended apron seats for greater convenience, are finding their way into bathrooms where space is a problem. Light colors and frequent changes of accessories will keep even the smallest of bathrooms looking pretty and appealing.

IN GOOD COMPANY.

"Look, mother!" yelled little Willie. "There's a big black bear out in the back yard."

"Now, Willie, you know perfectly well that's Tom Jones' dog. Now go straight to your room and kneel down and ask God to forgive you for telling a fib."

Willie was back downstairs in a few moments.

"Did you ask God to forgive you?"

"Yep, I did," said Willie, "and He said it was all right. God said the first time He saw Tom Jones' dog, He thought it was a bear Himself."

Mrs. Mary Lenard, Former Resident at Hiltson, Interred Here

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Lenard, 89-year-old former resident of the Hiltson community, west of Hamlin, were conducted Saturday afternoon at the Hamlin Church of Christ. Officiating was Austin Siburt, minister of the church.

Mrs. Lenard died last Thursday at Odessa, where she had been making her home for the past two years at the home of a daughter, Mrs. H. A. Wilson. She had been in ill health for several months.

Burial was in the Mount Zion Cemetery under direction to Rix Funeral home of Odessa.

Mrs. Lenard is survived by four daughters, Mrs. C. F. Gunn of California, Mrs. Merle Trammell, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Lillie Eckhart, all of Odessa.

Scourge of Grass Fires in Territory Sets New Record

A rash of grass and trash fires during the past eight weeks has racked up a record number of fire calls for the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department, according to Fire Chief James Josey.

Since June 1 the department has answered 41 alarms in the city limits and 14 in the rural areas close to Hamlin. All of these fires have been grass and trash fires—not one being to a major building or insured piece of property, Josey said.

The fire boys, on call at all hours of the day and night without pay, have made the runs, leaving their jobs and businesses in many instances.

Fortunately, Josey observes, in all these fires in the city limits only minor damage has been done to fences and one building. In the rural areas, much damage to pastures has been done by the fires, damages running into the thousands of dollars.

Josey points out that, although the department usually receives no remuneration for calls made outside the city limits, the boys have given much time to aiding farmers and ranchers during these fires.

Insured fire losses in Hamlin amounted to nearly $10,000 during the first two months of 1958, it is noted by the fire chief.

Josey urged people of the area to be careful with matches, cigarettes and other causes of most fires during the dry summer period.

J. W. Simmons New Magnolia Consignee

Formal announcement is being in this week's Herald of a transaction actually made several weeks ago whereby J. W. Simmons of Anson purchased the consignee business of A. (Sack) Hudson for Magnolia Petroleum Company. Details of the deal were only completed a few days ago. Simmons is Magnolia agent at Anson.

Offices of the consignee will continue to be at Ed Dodd service station, and Hudson will remain in charge. Simmons probably will move to Hamlin later, he declared.

DWINDLING VALUES. Overheard in a small town barber shop: "The way the cost of living is rising, a dollar saved is fifty cents lost."

KERRY DRAKE

Bill Adair Named President of New Area Riding Club

W. D. (Bill) Adair was elected president of the Hamlin Riding Club at the formal organization meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the Pied Piper Drive-In restaurant. Forty-eight men, women and children interested in the new organization attended the session.

Woodrow Simmons, new Magnolia consignee at Hamlin, presided at the session. He had had previous experience with riding clubs and was helpful in formation plans. The club had been under consideration for several weeks for people of the territory.

Besides Adair, other officers elected at the Monday evening gathering were: L. C. Bonds, vice president; Mrs. John D. Ferguson, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. E. J. Hawkins and Roy Thompson, directors.

Plans were made for a ride and watermelon feast Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock. Those interested in becoming members of the Hamlin Riding Club are invited to bring their horses to the L. C. Bonds arena, north of town, and ride with the group. Annual membership dues were set at $10 per family.

The executive committee was invited to meet Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Hawkins to set up by-laws for the organization, and they will be presented at the Friday session.

Also to be discussed Friday will be arrangements for an arena for the riding club. A committee was named to inspect probable sites for the arena.

School Faculty Now About Completed

Faculty for the Hamlin Schools is about complete, reported Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook this week. An English teacher and probably a replacement in junior high school now are needed to complete the faculty of some 69 teachers in the five schools of the city.

C. E. Sanders, 56, Passes Thursday, Buried at Hamlin

Burial rites for C. E. Sanders, 56-year-old former resident of the community, were conducted Tuesday morning at 10:30 in Hamlin East Cemetery. Austin Siburt, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, officiated.

Sanders, who was a salesman for the Rich Food Plan, and made Odessa his home, died last Thursday at Artesia, New Mexico after a short illness.

He was born in 1902 at Ardmore, Oklahoma. He previously had been in the trucking business at Lovington, New Mexico.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at Artesia, New Mexico, and his body was brought to Hamlin for burial Tuesday morning.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Sanders; four sons, Kenneth Sanders and Marvin L. Sanders of Artesia, New Mexico, David Sanders of Hamlin and Hollis Sanders of Germany; one daughter, Mrs. Lois Manrow of Toledo, Ohio; four brothers, W. O. Sanders of Grants, New Mexico, A. D. Meade of Kansas, Sam Sanders of Portales, New Mexico, and C. H. Sanders of Oklahoma; one sister, Mrs. Leslie Gordon of Portales, New Mexico.

Farm Legislation for Acreage Relief Urged By Farm Bureau Head

Passage of new farm legislation for cotton and rice at this session of Congress is imperative, J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, has declared.

"Few people realize that unless something is done, we will have a cut of 30 per cent in cotton acreage and a 40 per cent slash in rice acres in 1959," the farm leader said.

West emphasized the Congress should pass the farm bill that has been approved by the Senate committee on agriculture. He was also critical of statements by some congressmen that no farm legislation would be passed until next session.

"Farmers are not as much concerned with politics as they are in making a living," he stated. "Experience has proven that it isn't possible to bring up legislation in January and pass it before planting time."

"You look tired, dear," the wife greeted her husband. "Did you have a bad day at the office?"

FFA Boys Making Good Progress on Livestock Projects

Good progress is being reported on the summer time registered hog program of boys of the vocational agriculture department of Hamlin High School, declares T. C. Blankinship, VA teacher and sponsor of the Future Farmers of America group of boys.

Boys have the biggest supply of high quality registered sows and pigs in the VA department's history, Blankinship says. Also several boys are promoting fine beef cattle projects while school is out.

Pre-School Grid Camp Scheduled August 25 for HHS

Pre-school football camp for athletes of Hamlin High School will start on Monday, August 25, one week before the formal opening of school, it is announced this week by Head Football Coach D. C. Andrews. Six strenuous days of "skull practice" and actual work-outs will be conducted, the coach declares.

The camp, which is conducted at the football field and field house at Pied Piper stadium in Southwest Hamlin, is expected to attract about 50 boys, the coach declares. The one-week pre-school camp is all the period allowed by regulations of the Texas Interscholastic League officials.

Assisting Andrews will be Jimmy Vaughan and Neil Laminack, assistant coaches at high school, and Harry Martin, football coach at Hamlin Junior High School.

Eight of last year's letter men will be returning to the HHS grid this fall around which a formidable team is expected to be molded. Several promising former B stringers will bolster the candidates for berths on the Pied Piper squad, which faces a strenuous 10-game schedule of matched play in the regular season.

Services Set Sunday By Primitive Baptists

Morning and evening services are scheduled by the Primitive Baptist Church Sunday at the Dovie community church, five miles east of Hamlin on the Stamford highway, church leaders announce.

Song service will begin at 10:00 a. m. Preaching will be at 11:00 a. m. and also 8:00 p. m. Elder Fred Boen is pastor of the church.

"We enjoy our services very much, and urge others to come and join in worship with us," declares one of the church leaders. "We are thankful to our God in heaven for this little church and for the good people of the community for the use of the Dovie church house."

O. R. Lee, one of the church leaders, may be contacted for further information about the services or the congregation by telephoning 14-W or 45.

Calvary Church Talks New Building Again

Renewed interest in erection of a new church edifice for the Calvary Baptist Church congregation was manifested last Wednesday night, it is announced by Rev. G. C. Henry, pastor.

The church purchased lots in Northwest Hamlin several years ago as site for a new building, but the project was dropped due to drought conditions in the section.

The congregation has been worshipping for many years on South Central Avenue, near the McCauley highway Y.

First Floor of County Courthouse at Anson Being Air Conditioned

Before the summer is over the first floor offices of the Jones County courthouse at Anson will be air conditioned, according to County Judge H. G. (Pete) Andrews.

Contract for $14,000 was let on June 30 to Lone Star Gas Company for the job. Actual work began July 11.

The system being installed is known as the "chilled water" conditioner. Chilled water is inducted into radiators in each office and fanned out into the rooms. In winter the same pipes and radiators diffuse heat through the fan method.

"Plans are to extend the system to other floors in the next year or two," Judge Andrews said.

School Officials Go to Accounting Clinic

Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. C. F. Cook and Mrs. D. C. Andrews left Tuesday for Dallas and Denton. They will return this week-end.

At Denton Superintendent Cook and Mrs. Andrews, his secretary, will attend a workshop on school accounting sponsored by the Texas State Board of Education Tuesday through Thursday. At Dallas the Cooks will meet their son, C. F. Jr. of New Jersey, who is on his way to the Texas Coast for conferences on electronics for the Army.

Cotton Defoliation Guides Are Available

Supplies of the cotton defoliation guide for Texas are now in the hands of county agents over Texas. This leaflet, L-145, gives a complete run-down on dusts and sprays for defoliation where cotton is to be harvested mechanically.

Where cotton is to be harvested with strippers, growers will find information on desiccants for use with this type of harvesting. Also included is information on rates per acre and instructions for using the different chemicals.

Copies of this leaflet, "Cotton Defoliation Guide," can be obtained from the county agent's office in Anson.

American Forces Sent to Lebanon to Preserve Independence, Says Johnson

American forces were sent to Lebanon for one reason and one reason only—to preserve the independence of a strife torn nation, declares U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson in his weekly news letter to The Herald. His release continues: The action was taken on the appeal of the Lebanese government. It followed a tragic series of events in the Middle East—an area of the world that is crucial in the struggle to maintain freedom.

The armed forces of the United States have been committed. At the present time no one can foresee the future clearly. But, whatever the future may hold in store for us, the American people will be united. We will make it clear to the aggressors that this country is determined to maintain freedom in the world.

Free men are capable of attaining the highest form of unity and of meeting any crisis, no matter how severe.

The cold war continues. The basic communist objective in this cold war is the isolation of the United States. The communists have made frightening progress during the 13 years since the end of World War II. If they now succeed in their aim of isolating the United States, we will have lost the cold war.

And if we should lose the cold war, we will have lost just about everything that is important to us, except life itself, without a shot having been fired.

World trade is a potent weapon in the cold war between the free nations and the communist areas. In addition, the two-way flow of trade between the United States and other countries vitally affects the economic well-being of our people.

The reciprocal trade agreements program, up for consideration in the Senate this week, was initiated in 1934 and has been extended at regular intervals since then. It is an important and necessary program, one of tremendous importance to the nation and of particular importance to Texas.

Many jobs in Texas depend—directly and indirectly—on the buying and selling of goods between the United States and other nations. These jobs are in industry, in agriculture, in the important Texas ports, and in business organizations that sell products and services to Texans employed in foreign trade occupations.

The one purpose of the reciprocal trade agreements program is to increase the flow of commerce between the United States and other countries. It is based on the simple fact that if we are to be able to sell to other nations we must be prepared to buy from other nations.

The trade program works. The United States is now selling some $20,000,000,000 worth of goods annually to the rest of the world. And Texas, as a state where export and import is of great economic importance, has a very large stake in continuance of the reciprocal trade agreements program.

The Herald has carbon paper.

L. H. McBride of Hamlin Named to NLFA Directory

L. H. McBride, Hamlin mayor, businessman and farm operator has been selected to succeed the late Joe L. Culbertson as a member of the board of directors of the National Farm Loan Association of Haskell. That association is the result of the consolidation of similar organizations in Anson, Haskell and Seymour, and it will make and service Federal Land Bank loans in Haskell, Jones, Baylor and Knox Counties.

McBride was formerly a director of the constituent Jones County NFILA. Joe Breed of Anson is assistant secretary-treasurer and loan manager of the newly consolidated association and will maintain an office in Anson for the new association at the same location of the old Jones County NFILA.

Breed explains that the Jones County members of the new association will continue to conduct their business with the Anson office. He advises, however, that the Anson office will be open mornings, and that he will ordinarily devote the afternoons to field work.

McBride and Breed also announce that Federal Land Bank appraisal standards have recently been increased on better quality farms and ranches. It is indicated that a 20 to 25 per cent increase in loans may be permitted under this new policy on the most desirable and saleable properties.

New Roof Installed at Memorial Library

A new roof has been added to the Hamlin Memorial Library to replace the roof that was damaged several weeks ago, it was reported at the regular meeting of the Hamlin Woman's Forum, sponsoring organization, at its regular meeting Tuesday evening of last week. Also other improvements, including new screen doors and a back step, have been added. The forum is indebted to W. O. Willbanks for free labor on these jobs.

Next regular meeting of the forum will be September 9, which is the next fifth Tuesday of this calendar year.

Hamlin Firemen Go To Drills Regularly

Hamlin has one of the most hard working and efficient volunteer fire departments anywhere, it is pointed out by Fire Chief James Josey this week as he tabulated records of regular drills of the firemen.

During the first quarter of this year five drills for the firemen were attended by 81 per cent of the men on the force. During the second quarter 82 per cent attendance was recorded.

Josey declares that the regular training sessions for the firemen account for credits on fire insurance rates.

Four Juvenile Books Donated to Library

Four new books have been put in the Hamlin Memorial Library within the last few days by the Hamlin Woman's Forum.

These books were selected by the library committee because of their special interest to juvenile readers. They are "Miracles on Maple Hill" by Virginia Sorensen (a Newberry medal award winner), "Buttons in the Back" by Elizabeth Kirkland, "The Dog Who Wouldn't Be" by Farley Mowat, and "Rifles for Waite," another Newberry award winner.

Mrs. W. O. Willbanks, librarian, reports there is quite a bit of renewed interest in the library.
